

Lyrebird Analytics welcomes Mr. Adam Beaton

Lyrebird Analytics is happy to announce that we have recently been joined by Mr. Adam Beaton as our CTO. Adam brings a lot of valuable experience and knowledge to our company, acquired by him over two decades in various industries. Adam will be of significant value to both our company, our partner firms abroad and the clients we serve.

Adam has close to two decades of experience in technology, innovation and business change. He is a consultant and researcher in technology strategy and enterprise architecture, specializing in large corporate clients and high-growth organisations.

Adam has an MSc in Technology Management, and is a Chartered Fellow of the British Computer Society. Adam lives in London with his wife and two children.
